

Koffee Klatch Programs for Adults of the North Shore

These free programs are held the 1st Friday of the month, except Sept. & April. All programs begin at 10:15 and conclude around noon.

September 9 Navigating the Healthcare System with Dianne Savastano of Healthassist, professional healthcare consultants. She has 25 years of experience as a RN, clinical director, and director of managed care for an insurance company. She is also a caregiver to a family member. Put her advice to work for you.

October 7 Bavarian Hofbrau Band Oktoberfest. Get your lederhosen out of mothballs, call a 'freund' and come dancing. As an added bonus, Chrissy Loiacano will be on hand to show us polkas. Wunderbar!

November 4 Charlie Dawson, Entertainer. A local favorite with an amazing repertoire: he's traveled extensively as a concert, TV and nightclub musician and spent 11 years as a featured performer with top cruise line ships.

December 2 Scams & Frauds presented by Rachel Meyer of the Better Business Bureau. Equip yourself with tips on how to improve your consumer skills and know the danger signs that will alert you to some of the most common scams.

January 6 Pleasures of the Table: Eating and Drinking in the Early Republic, presented by Joe Carlin, food historian. Food is part of national identity, and newly-formed America found its own way with local products, customs, our first cookbooks, and standardized measures.

February 3 All the Presidents' Women presented by the Delvena Theatre Company. Have we already had a female president? Which first lady may have murdered her husband? Fascinating & uncommon stories provide lively entertainment and promote dialog after the performance between cast and audience.

March 2 Golden Age of Radio presented by Tom Martin. This lively, interactive, trip back in time features 30 sound clips of radio shows and commercials, with narration of facts, stories & trivia.

April 13 Haunted History of New England by Christopher Daley. The presentation melds historical fact together with legend and myth to produce an interesting and fascinating new look at events that really happened and the stories of haunting that followed.

May 4 Identity Theft presented by Rachel Meyer of the Better Business Bureau. You have more control than you think! How to prevent access to your personal information, detect unauthorized activity and resolve problems.
