

Pins & Pendants with a Past

with Judith Klein

Thursday, August 26

3:00pm - 5:30pm

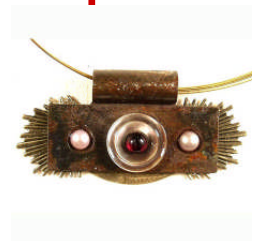

at the Hamilton-Wenham Public Library

Judith Klein hangs out at busy intersections and auto body shops, in breakdown lanes, and motorcycle graveyards, collecting small pieces of metal that have fallen off speeding cars.

These recycled materials are then turned into unique accessories. Create a pin or pendant at this workshop, bring your own found materials such as: vintage buttons, squished bottle caps, found pieces of metal, old jewelry, watch parts, beads, etc., or use what is here.

Space is limited to 10 participants.

Pre-registration is required.
